Using Technology Respectfully and Responsibly

A Lesson Plan from Rights, Respect, Responsibility: A K-12 Curriculum
Fostering responsibility by respecting young people’s rights to honest sexuality education.

ADVANCE PREPARATION FOR LESSON:

- Either download this video or ask your IT person at school to unblock this site for you to use in class: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=bhMxI31xf0U.
- Sexting is a particularly sensitive topic within sexuality education. You may wish to show this lesson and the video to your Supervisor or Building Principal to ensure they support its use.
- Go to http://mobilemediaguard.com/state_main.html (U.S. Sexting Laws) and look up your state’s laws on sexting. Be sure to ask your IT person at school to unblock this site for you to use in class.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:
By the end of this lesson, students will be able to:

1. Define what sexting is. Describe two disadvantages and two reasons why someone may sext. [Knowledge]
2. Identify at least two connections between child pornography and sexting laws. [Knowledge]
3. Describe at least two facts relating to sexting laws in their state. [Knowledge]
4. Explain at least two options for people involved in sexting situations. [Knowledge]

A NOTE ABOUT LANGUAGE:
Language is really important and we’ve intentionally been very careful about our language throughout this curriculum. You may notice language throughout the curriculum that seems less familiar - using the pronoun “they” instead of “her” or “him”, using gender neutral names in scenarios and role-plays and referring to “someone with a vulva” vs. a girl or woman. This is intended to make the curriculum inclusive of all genders and gender identities. You will need to determine for yourself how much and how often you can do this in your own school and classroom, and should make adjustments accordingly.

PROCEDURE:

STEP 1: Start class by saying, “We’re going to be talking today about how we use technology with friends, partners and even people we don’t really know. Let’s start by looking at this brief video, which we’ll discuss together afterwards.” (1 minute)
STEP 2: Show the video and stop it at 4:13 when the narrator starts to talk about having a larger discussion about consent. Process by asking the following questions:

- What do you think about sexting?
- Using both the video and some of your own thoughts, why do you think some people might sext?
- What are some of the potentially negative things about sexting?

Say, "Laws regarding sexting are different in every state – but one thing they have in common is that a naked photo of someone under the age of 18 is considered child pornography, and child pornography is illegal. But what does that mean when someone has taken their own picture and send it to someone else? What happens if the person who sent it consented, and the person who received it consented, and they didn’t share it with anyone else? Is it okay then?" (8 minutes)

STEP 3: Go through the PowerPoint, “U.S. Sexting Laws.” After you have completed slide 4, “The Law Takes This Really Seriously,” say, “Let’s take a look at the laws in our state.” Put up the U.S. Sexting Laws website at http://mobilemediaguard.com/state_main.html and click on your state. Go through what you find there. Ask students what they think of what you just shared. (8 minutes)

STEP 4: After students share their reactions, say, “Once you reach the age of 18, you are legally considered an adult and can decide for yourself what you think is right for yourself regarding sexting. If you are under 18, sexting is illegal.

Divide the class into groups of three. Distribute the scenarios relating to sexting and ask them to discuss together what they would do and then write their ideas down on the worksheet. Tell them they have about ten minutes in which to work.

Note to the Teacher: If your students would respond to movement, an alternate is to copy two sets of the scenarios so you have six total and post one set on each side of the room. Then divide your class into six groups and have three groups rotate through the scenarios on one side of the room while the other three groups do the same on the opposite side of the room.

(12 minutes)

STEP 5: After about 10 minutes, ask students to stop. Have a volunteer read the first scenario aloud, and then ask that group to share what they came up with. Ask other groups whether they had anything different or anything to add. Have a different volunteer read the next scenario and then share from their group what they came up with. Again, ask other groups whether they had anything different or anything to add. Continue in this way until all three scenarios have been discussed. (15 minutes)

STEP 6: Return to the PowerPoint, moving to the last two slides, titled, “What Can You Do?” Read through the points on these slides.

Say, “This isn’t easy to talk about, and you may still have questions. Please remember you can always talk with me – or, you may wish to continue this conversation at home with a parent or caregiver or any other trusted adult you feel you could speak with about this topic.”
Describe the homework assignment and close the class. (6 minutes)

RECOMMENDED ASSESSMENT OF LEARNING OBJECTIVES AT CONCLUSION OF LESSON:
Watching and discussing the video will achieve the first learning objective. Going through the PowerPoint and website information will achieve the second and third learning objectives. Completing the scenario worksheets will achieve the fourth learning objective.

HOMEWORK:
Have students tell four other students about what they learned in class today and complete the “Spreading the Word” worksheet.
Worksheet: Sexting Scenarios

SCENARIO ONE

Another student at school has started asking your friends about you. You think they’re kind of cute and might be interested in something with them, but you’re not quite sure. Somehow, they get your cell number and text you, “Hey.” You’re not expecting that, so you text back, “Who is this?” The answer you get is, “It’s me,” followed by a naked picture of them.

What should you do?

SCENARIO TWO

You’re in a relationship with someone, and you’re really into each other. Part of your relationship is to send sexy texts back and forth, talking about how attracted you are to each other. One day, your partner texts, “How about sending me something I can look at and think of you?” You don’t see anything wrong with it, especially since things are so good between you. You send a naked pic with the text, “Just 4 you, k?” They text back how much they love it. The next day, three different people tell you how hot they thought your picture was.

What should you do?

SCENARIO THREE

You and your partner have been together for 3 months. You like each other’s friends, you like spending time together, you’re really in sync with what you do and don’t like sexually. You have sexted each other a few times, both texts and sexy photos. Neither of you has shared your pictures with anyone else, and promised you never would. As the school year goes on, you meet someone you click with instantly. You’re instantly hooked, and feel you need to be the one to tell your partner that it’s over. Unfortunately, they find out from someone else and freak out. They go to their Instagram account, and start posting the naked photos they have of you online.

What should you do?

Spreading the Word

Name: _________________________ Date: _________________________

INSTRUCTIONS: Lots of students don’t know the information we went over in class today. Your job is to find four different people your age between now and next class and share two things about sexting you remember from class with them. Then complete the table below and hand it in next class.

<tr>
<th>First name of student you spoke with</th>
<th>Date of conversation</th>
<th>What two things did you share with them from class?</th>
<th>How much of this was new to them?</th>
