

Table A. Effective Programs and Their Impact on Adolescents’ Risk for Pregnancy, HIV & STI Programs

PROGRAMS	BEHAVIORAL OUTCOMES							Increased Compliance with STI Treatment Protocols	HEALTH IM-PACTS
	Delayed Initiation of Sex	Reduced Frequency of Sex	Reduced Number of Sex Partners	Increased Monogamy	Reduced Incidence of Unprotected Sex	Increased Use of Condoms	Increased Use of Contraception		Reduced Incidence of STIs	Decreased Number or Rate of Teen Pregnancy / Birth
1. School/Community Program for Sexual Risk Reduction among Teens	★					★				★
2. Self Center (School-Linked Reproductive Health Center)	★				★		★			★
3. Children’s Aid Society—Carrera Program	★					★	★			★
4. SiHLE — STI & HIV Prevention for African American Teenage Women		★			★	★			★	★
5. Tailoring Family Planning Services to the Special Needs of Adolescents							★			★
6. HIV Risk Reduction for African American and Latina Adolescent Women			★		★				★
7. Project SAFE: Sexual Awareness for Everyone		★		★	★			★	★

Note: Blank boxes indicate either 1) that the program did not measure nor aim at this particular outcome/impact or 2) that the program did not achieve a significant positive outcome in regard to the particular behavior or impact.